On May 18, 2022, the Court directed counsel for the government to confer with defense counsel and obtain an estimate for the number of days it will take to try the instant case. (ECF No. 513). On May 19, 2022, the undersigned counsel for the government corresponded with defense counsel, estimating that in its current posture the estimated length of trial for this case is ten days. The consensus among counsel for the above-named defendants and counsel for the government is that, subject to the charges against one or more of the defendants being resolved prior to trial, the estimated length of trial in this case is ten days. As directed by the Court (ECF No. 514), counsel for the government will provide regular updates on the status of the case.
